The Ledger, with scores of others, hope that many anniversaries will yet be enjoyed, with Colonel Rosser the central figure.

Messrs. N. R. Rice of Adams county and John McNoll of Peebles, O., were in the city this morning on their return from chasing two horse thieves. They were brothers named Nichols. The pursuing party chased them beyond Carlisle, where the horse thieves back-tracked and their trail was lost. A good sized reward is offered for their capture.

MRS. EMMA P. DOWNTON.

Mrs. Emma P. Downton passed away last evening at her home in Danville.

The announcement of her death will bring sadness to many Maysville homes, Mrs. Downton being widely related in this city.

Her illness dates back several months. While at Talladega, Ala., where she was Matron of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, she was stricken early in January last, from the first her condition being quite serious.

Recovering somewhat later she was removed to her home at Danville, where the final summons came last night.

Mrs. Downton was a daughter of the late Samuel C. Pearce of this city. Her early life was spent here, where she is remembered as a noble and beautiful woman.

She is a half-sister of Mrs. Allie Ballenger, and is related to Mrs. L. W. Robertson, Mrs. Thomas J. Chenoweth and the Pearce family. Mrs. Ballenger has been with her the past four months.

Mrs. Downton is survived by several children. The funeral takes place tomorrow, the remains to be laid to rest in the Cemetery at Danville.

R. B. HORD.

R. B. Hord died yesterday at his home in Lewis county of heart failure, aged about 82.

He leaves six children, Oscar, Dr. William H., Abner, Thornton, Miss Mollie Hord and Mrs. Nannie Teager.

The funeral will be held at Olivet Church tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

MRS. JOHN BURKE.

Mrs. John Burke passed away last night at her home at Flemingsburg, from the result of an operation which she underwent a day or so since.

Deceased was formerly a Miss Krentz of this city.

The funeral will take place Sunday, the hour not yet having been set.

MISS NANNIE MORGAN CARTMELL.

Miss Nannie Morgan Cartmell, daughter of the late Dr. S. M. Cartmell and of Mrs. Lucretia Cartmell of West Front street, died at the home of her mother this morning at 8 o'clock.

Though in declining health for several years, and fully aware of her precarious condition for some months, Miss Cartmell evinced the matchless courage and tender patience that is only given souls who gaze into the Great Mystery with eyes of unquestioning faith.

In the honorable discharge of daily duties, in the silent doing of kindly deeds, she bravely faced every crisis of life, and passed to the Great Beyond with the Christian resignation of one who knew—

"Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die."

The gifted mind active to the last, the generous heart ever thoughtful of ministering loved ones, the brave will undaunted by suffering that might well have quelled the strongest, in holy resignation unsmiling, the courageous spirit winged its flight to Him in whose love and mercy our trust abides.

The funeral will take place from the home at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with services by the Rev. Dr. W. G. McCready.

Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

PIANO TUNING.

Mr. E. C. Shearer, Piano Tuner of Cincinnati, will be here for one week, starting Monday, May 16th. Orders may be left with Miss Lida Berry, 215 West Second street, or Mrs. Joe Wood.

It is chiefly because that general design is made in so many modifications and variations that your exact size and shape is always to be found in R & G Corsets.

NEW TRACTION LINE

Looks Like Aberdeen and Maysville Will have Another Outlet

It looks like the people who are behind the Chillicothe, Bainbridge and Aberdeen Traction Line mean business. Dr. A. A. Luther, General Manager, with his Chief Engineer, E. H. Baner, have been stopping at the New Central for several days.

They were over the line yesterday prospecting and started again this morning. A surveying corps will begin work Monday, being followed later by a leveler.

An enthusiastic meeting of the business men of Manchester was held last night to see what inducement could be offered the company to extend their line to that place.

Dr. Luther informs THE LEDGER that his instructions are to push matters with reasonable haste. From present appearances it does look as if Aberdeen will have a road of some kind at no late date. So mote it be.

Last Night Was Elks Night

DEDICATORY CEREMONIES.

Reception, Followed by Christening of the New Home and a Banquet

Dean Lee of Lexington Delivers a Most Eloquent Oration—Some Impromptu Talks

From 3 to 5 p. m. yesterday the handsome Elks Home in West Front street was thronged with visitors in response to the general invitation from the Order for a thorough inspection of the beautiful rooms.

In the two hours named hundreds of guests passed in and out, each one enthusiastic over the beauty of the Home.

The reception was most informal. In the receiving line were—Messrs. Thomas R. Phister, Harry B. Owens, C. D. Pearce, J. Wesley Lee, Hamlet C. Sharp, William N. Stockton, Millard Merz, Charles Holstein, James H. Hall, and Misses Florence and Lydia Rogers, whose gracious style in welcoming the guests bespoke the true hospitality of Kentucky Elks.

For the opening of the Home the afternoon affair was singularly appropriate and one of unusual brilliance.

The throngs of guests,—elegantly gowned ladies and courtly gentlemen,—music and flowers, were all in keeping with the surroundings, on which so much time and care had been spent by those having the work in hand.

A superb piano occupies a place in the Lodge-room and during the reception hours delightful music was rendered by Miss Lida Berry and Prof. Bullett.

In the Ladies' Reception Room light refreshments were served, nothing having been left undone to make the guests most welcome.

The 8:15 L. and N. train brought two distinguished visitors, Dean Baker P. Lee from Lexington and Mr. John H. Stuart from Frankfort.

The latter is Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the B. P. O. E. for Kentucky, and he came to dedicate the elegant new Home of Maysville Lodge No. 704, Dean Lee having kindly consented to deliver the oration incident thereto.

They were met at the Station by Mr. Harry C. Curran and escorted to the Home, where an anxious throng of nearly a hundred awaited.

Shortly before 9 o'clock the beautiful and impressive ceremonies began, with John H. Stuart as Grand Exalted Ruler.

The exercises opened with singing, an impressive prayer by Harry C. Curran, Grand Chaplain, and the symbolic "building" of the edifice.

Following came the handing of the keys to the G. E. R. by Mr. Thomas A. Davis, Chairman of the Building Committee, with the request that the finished Temple be "set apart and dedicated to the business and purposes of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks."

At the close of the ritualistic ceremonies Dean Lee delivered the oration, which for finished diction, beauty of metaphor and appropriateness of sentiment has never been surpassed in this city.

In introducing the Dean, Mr. Stuart assured his Brother Elks that while the Rev. Lee might just then be a stranger to most of them, he would soon be one of the best known and most popular men in Maysville; and the oration that followed fully warranted the statement.

Others than those already named who took part in the ceremonies were Messrs. W. C. Watkins, John H. Murray, Harry Daly and N. S. Calhoun, each of whom did his part well.

Throughout there was appropriate music, vocal and "instrumental," and the Benediction by Grand Chaplain Curran closed the dedication.

The visitors and members now betook themselves to the New Central, where Manager Daugherty had prepared this tempting

Two tables extended the length of the spacious dining-room, one headed by Exalted Ruler Gordon Sulzer, who presided as Toastmaster, with Dean Lee on his right, and the other headed by Mr. Charles D. Pearce, who had been a most active member of the Committee on House Furnishing and Banquet, with his fellow-Committeeman, Mr. J. Wesley Lee, at the foot of this table, Grand Exalted Ruler Stuart seated at Mr. Pearce's right. It was regretted that Past E. R. Thomas M. Russell, the remaining member of this Committee, was detained in Cincinnati by illness.

After a full and free discussion of the menu, from Consomme to Cigars, the Toastmaster sprung a surprise on a number of the now over-fledged participants, by calling for impromptu speeches as varied on subjects as Uncle Sam's weather reports.

At exactly that hour, the "Eleven-O'clock Toast" was drunk, all members standing.

Among these who made happy responses to the call of Toastmaster Sulzer were Judge Thomas R. Phister, Judge Charles D. Newell, Deputy G. E. R. Stuart, W. H. Trouts, Jr., Thomas D. Slattery, Dean Lee, Charles D. Pearce, J. Wesley Lee, Thomas A. Davis, Dr. H. K. Adamson and Harry C. Curran.

Among other incidents, Dean Lee proposed a toast for the success of the little Japs, which was responded to most heartily.

At 12:20 the banquet was dissolved; and so far this morning THE LEDGER has not heard of a single Elk who could not wear antlers of normal size.

The Ashland and Cretztsburg School excursion over the C. and O. this morning had 21 coaches.

A prominent club woman, Mrs. Danforth, of St. Joseph, Mich., tells how she was cured of falling of the womb and its accompanying pains and misery by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is fading away and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapsus or falling of the womb. The words sounded like a knell to me, I felt that my sun had set; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me as an elixir of life; it restored the lost forces and built me up until my good health returned to me. For four months I took the medicine daily and each dose added health and strength. I am so thankful for the help I obtained through its use."—MRS. FLORENCE DANFORTH, 1007 Miles Ave., St. Joseph, Mich.

A medicine that has restored so many women to health and can produce proof of the fact must be regarded with respect. This is the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which cannot be equalled by any other medicine the world has ever produced. Here is another case:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For years I was troubled with falling of the womb, irregular and painful menstruation, leucorrhoea, bearing-down pains, backache, headache, dizzy and fainting spells, and stomach trouble.

"I doctored for about five years but did not seem to improve. I began the use of your medicine, and have taken seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, three of Blood Purifier, and also used the Sanative Wash and Liver Pills, and am now enjoying good health, and have gained in flesh. I thank you very much for what you have done for me, and heartily recommend your medicine to all suffering women."—Miss EMMA SNYDER, 218 East Center St., Marion, Ohio.

How Mr. J. C. Pecor Showed the Difference to a Public Ledger Man.

A PUBLIC LEDGER man was talking with Mr. J. C. Pecor lately, discussing a very interesting subject, when Mr. Pecor said:

"See here, I'll show you now just what I mean." He went out and soon returned with a bit of board and two bottles. Resting one end of the board on the counter, he supported the other end with his fingers, and poured on the board from one of the bottles a drop of thick, oily substance, which slowly oozed down the slope. Then Mr. Pecor took the other bottle and poured out just a drop of a clear, delicious, dark red liquid. This drop shot down the incline in the twinkling of an eye.

"This first bottle," said Mr. Pecor, "is the old-fashioned cod liver oil, or emulsion, as it is called. The second bottle contains Vinol. See how slowly the emulsion creeps along the board. It is thick, sluggish, unwholesome. But the Vinol dashes to the bottom at once. These two substances act like this in the human body—the cod liver oil is so thick and clogging that it merely upsets digestion, and its medicinal value is lost, while Vinol goes at once to the seat of trouble and corrects the difficulty by creating an appetite and building up the strength and general health.

"Vinol you know is a cod liver oil preparation, and, while it contains all the medicinal elements which have made cod liver oil famous, it contains not a drop of oil, and is delicious to the taste. We cannot guarantee old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsion, but Vinol is guaranteed to the limit, and if it fails to give satisfaction it costs nothing. We stand the loss. But it won't fail. Try it on our guarantee and see." J. C. Pecor, Druggist.

This finally disposes of the case.

GOOD SPIRITS.
Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver; and all the fine spirits ever made in the Bluegrass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower, the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach, and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. For sale by Henry W. Ray, Postoffice Druggists.
